

SOUTHERN-TYPE AXE

VI3301

The southern style axe features a tempered steel blade, designed for wood cutting and firewood preparation. Its blade profile allows effective and controlled strikes during rural and forestry work. Suitable for agricultural use, forestry tasks and land maintenance, it offers durability and reliable performance for regular outdoor use.

Key features

- > Tempered steel blade for durability
- > Suitable for wood cutting and splitting
- > Effective and controlled strikes
- > Ideal for rural and forestry work
- > Robust construction for regular use

Specifications

Diameter	57 mm
Material	Hardened steel
Handle	VI4035
Size	140 x 240 mm
Weight	2,11 kg